stitutions and Business-Houses to Close. Tuesday will be a big day for Richmond.

Tuesday will be a big day for Richmond. The Exposition will open with celat. The low rates offered by the railroads, of one fare for the round-trip, will bring thousands of visitors to the big show from all parts of the State and from many points in North Carolina. Mayor Taylor will issue a proclamation closing all the city offices on that day, the Tobacco and Grain and Cotton exchanges, and the banks, freight-depots, and public schools will be closed, and, so far as it is practicable and possible to be obtained, there will be a general suspension of business, in order that everybody may have an opportunity to attend the opening of the of the visiting and home military, in which the First Virginia Regiment, the Richmond Light-Infantry Blues, the Charlottesville and Norfolk companies, the Stuart Horse-Guard, and the Henrico Stuart Horse-Guard, and the Henrico Troop of Cavalry, and the Regimental and Blues' bands will take part. Arrangements for this feature were completed yesterday. The military organizations will form at the corner of Ninth and Broad streets at 11 o'clock, and will proceed, under command of Colonel Henry C. Jones, to the front of the Executive Mansion, where they will be joined by the Governor in a carriage. The militia will then, with his Excellency at their head, move to the Exposition-Grounds, the line of march being out Grace to Fifth, to Franklin, to one of the cross streets near the college, and to the grounds. lege, and to the grounds.

Arriving at the grounds, the Governor will be met by the officers of the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical Society, and escorted to the Music Hall, where the formal opening exercises will be held, in accordance with the programme, which s published elsewhere in this morning's

HOW TO GET THERE. While the facilities for reaching the Exposition-Grounds are not what could be desired, they are as good as have been enjoyed for years. The Clay-street line will carry passengers out as far as Harrison and Broad streets, where there will be wagons and vehicles of all kinds, in which visitors can go the balance of the way, which is only a few hundred yards. By taking the Marshall-street car one can go to a point in the rear of the grounds, and, besides these means, there will be dozens of vehicles at the corner of Sedozens of vehicles at the corner of Se-venth and Broad at all hours during the day, the object of which is to carry per-sons to the grounds for the sum of 10
